(They flower a few weeks after planting)

Planted in August and September they bloom in a few weeks and continue into November, weather permitting. The planting is a permanent one and they will flower in profusion each fall thereafter.

The great pleasure of having quantities of these lovely flowers in our gardens, in the lawn, under the trees, along the bank or driveway or in forgotten corners, in great variety, flowering there through September into October and some varieties even flowering until severe frost puts an end to all this gaiety, is easily within our grasp.

Colchicums (Meadow Saffron)

They produce very large flowers (4 to 6 times the size of the regular Crocus) and the blooms are produced in succession over a long period.

Our bulbs grown at our Holland farms are the very largest that are produced for sale. They give the maximum in results—many times up to 20 flowers from a single bulb.

AUTUMNALE ALBUM. Beautiful pure white. $3.50 for 10; $8.50 for 25; $33.00 per 100.

AUTUMNALE MAJOR. One of the largest flowering and a rosy purple. $4.00 for 10; $9.50 for 25; $37.00 per 100.

AUTUMNALE MINOR. While the flowers are not as large—it is of a beautiful Mauve shade. $3.50 for 10; $8.50 for 25; $33.00 per 100.

AUTUMNALE ROSEUM FLORE PLENO. Double flower of exceptional beauty. Rosy purple. $4.00 for 10; $9.50 for 25; $37.00 per 100.

THE GIANT. As the name implies, it is a giant size flower of purest lilac. $4.75 for 10; $11.50 for 25; $45.00 per 100.

VIOLET QUEEN The large flowers have a ground color of lilac with violet tints for an exquisite effect. $4.75 for 10; $11.50 for 25; $45.00 per 100.

SPECIAL MIXTURE. Large flowered varieties in a special mixture. $3.50 for 10; $8.00 for 25; $30.00 per 100.

NEW DOUBLE COLCHICUMS

Great double flowers like giant Water Lily blooms. Our large bulbs produce an abundance of blooms over a long period. Each variety received an Award of Merit by The Royal General Bulbgrowers' Society, Haarlem, Holland.

SPECIOSUS ALBUS. Pure white. $3.75 for 3; $10.00 for 10.

WATER LILY. Violet-rose of rare beauty. $2.25 for 3; $7.00 for 10.

STERNBERGIA LUTEA

The Yellow Autumn Crocus—a most charming rock-garden subject. Also very useful for naturalizing, together with the autumn-flowering crocuses as they flower at the same time and offer very fine color contrasts. The flowers closely resemble a crocus of a bright yellow. We will ship the bulbs together with those of the autumn-flowering crocuses in late August-early September; they will commence flowering about three weeks after being planted. $3.25 for 10; $7.75 for 25; $30.00 for 100.

Autumn Flowering Crocuses

The flowers of these gems are the same size as the regular Crocus. Our large size bulbs will produce from 4 to 6 blooms each. The reasonable price of these bulbs allows them to be planted in quantity.

SATIVUS. Flowers are purplish feathered violet, with showy orange stigmata, slightly scented. Very free flowering. $3.00 for 25; $10.00 per 100.

SPECIOSUS. Bright violet-blue prettily veined; having orange-red anthers and light yellow throat; large handsome and showy, one of the best for naturalizing in the grass and massing in borders and rock work. $3.00 for 25; $10.00 per 100.

SPECIOSUS ALBUS. A very fine white-flowered variety. Has all the same fine qualities as "Speciosus." $3.00 for 25; $10.00 per 100.

ZONATUS. Rose-lilac, center of the bloom is yellow with orange zone; ethereal in its lovely coloring, slightly scented. A very beautiful variety. Extra fine for naturalizing and produces from our large bulbs 5 to 6 blooms. $3.00 for 25; $10.00 per 100.

TALL BEARDED IRIS

(June Flowering)

INCREASE GARDEN BEAUTY—
REDUCE LABOR COSTS

The culture of the Bearded Irises offers no difficulties. But because they will grow under arid conditions, will survive in shade, and bravely assume the part, too often thrust upon them, of rescuing from desolation some garden region where little else will consent to grow, these willing plants are, more often than not, treated with scant consideration and denied the opportunity to develop the full measure of their beauty and mobility. Even so they pluckily grow and blossom; but give them their desire—abundant sunshine, good soil rich in lime and devoid of fresh manure, intelligent watering during dry seasons, particularly when the buds are forming—and the reward in multiplicity of flowers, in their improved color and size and texture, in the sturdy increase of the clumps, will astonish many a one who is under the impression that he is familiar with the manifold charms of color, the perfection of form of these most enchanting flowers.

We have given much careful study to the great number of varieties usually listed. We have noted the many similarities existing, and have finally selected what we would consider a Master List, consisting of the most desirable varieties, so that you may plant all of the following in your garden without danger of regret.

All appear on the list of 100 best, published by the American Iris Society. Dykes Medal Winners received the Highest Award of the Society which is made each year.

ARGUS PHEASANT. Golden Brown. A very remarkable flower of bright golden brown with a copper sheen. Very outstanding and a Dykes Medal Winner. Height, 38 inches. $2.25 each; $5.50 for 3; $20.00 for 12.

CHERIE. Flamingo Pink. A large full bodied flamingo pink self with a deep tangerine beard, for a stunning effect. Dykes Medal Winner and rightfully so, as it is a fine flower. Height, 36 inches. $2.25 each; $5.50 for 3; $20.00 for 12.

CHIVALRY. Medium Blue Very beautiful. The large blooms are nicely ruffled and of great substance. The position of the flowers on the stem is excellent. Prize winner. Height, 36 inches. $1.00 each; $2.50 for 3; $8.00 for 12.

Color can be described as being between Mulberry purple and Bishop's purple. Strong grower, fine foliage and good for exhibition. Height, 37 inches. $2.25 each; $5.50 for 3; $20.00 for 12.
